

VISITORS AT WORK AT THE MUSÉE D'ART CONTEMPORAIN STARTING DECEMBER 11

Montréal, December 1, 1994. For the second year in a row, the Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal is offering a very special visual arts exhibition. Entitled Visitors at Work II, this presentation will run from December 11 to January 8 in Beverley Webster Rolph Hall and will display 250 works created by some of the 10,000 participants in the Pratt & Whitney Canada art workshops throughout 1994.

The show will include pieces produced at all the museum's different workshops over the year: Down With Brushes!; Spring Sweet Spring; La Dame aux castors; T-Shirts, Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!; Saxe et collages; Nine Paintings in One and Little Bits of Worlds.

The workshops don't stop there, though. From December 15 to 30, the Musée invites you to Hats Off to 1995!, to get ready for the New Year in original fashion. Come and create a funny, eccentric party hat that will amuse your family and friends at your New Year's celebrations.

The Pratt & Whitney Canada art workshops are held Tuesday through Friday, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., for groups (by reservation only: (514) 847-6253). For all other visitors, they take place on Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m.; no reservation is necessary, and admission is free with the purchase of a Musée entry ticket.

- 30 -

Source: Claude Guérin
Head Writer

Information: Louise Faure
Media Relations Officer
(514) 847-6232